Cindy Mccoy
Designer, Founder, CEO

Cindy Mccoy, known to many as MsDesigns, discovered the world of quilting in 1993. She created the company CD Designs for the purpose of selling her own appliqué patterns. In 1997, she fell in love with English Paper Piecing. Her first finished project was a gift to her mother - a king-sized Grandmother's Flower Garden quilt. Cindy traveled around the USA doing quilt shows as a vendor. She also taught Freezer Paper Appliqué and English Paper Piecing at the shows. After about five years of traveling, Cindy moved her company to the Internet. As an experienced, professional web designer, she has created all of her websites.

Cindy is the CEO of The Quilt Pattern Magazine, her latest big adventure.
